

DEIRDRE O'HARA

Deirdre brings to the SFPC Board 30+ years of experience in electricity generation, transmission, wholesale markets and regulation gained in senior management and consultancy roles in ESB Group, Bord Gais Energy and EirGrid Group.

She has bachelor's degrees in mathematics and mechanical engineering (Trinity College Dublin), master's degrees in business administration (TCD) and maritime archaeology (University of Southampton), diplomas in computer simulation & modelling (TCD) and company direction (Institute of Directors).

Deirdre served on the boards of six ESB International wind generation businesses and has been a director of Marchwood Power (UK), Foundation Nepal, the National Standards Authority of Ireland, the Discovery Programme and Rowing Ireland.